Expert appraisals, grading, pricing, and evaluations are done at a rate of $50 per hour, non-refundable; the first hour must be paid in advance. Other than copies of this sheet, signed appraisals, grading sheets, pricing estimates, and/or evaluations will be supplied on company letterhead; notary service is available at an extra cost. Detailed grading with documentation is billed at our hourly rate; in general, three to five books per hour may be graded (older books require more time to properly evaluate). Should additional meetings with insurance adjustors and/or agents be required, that is also billed at the $50/hour rate. Should the cost of the evaluation/grading exceed the deposit made, Twilight Gaming & Comics, Inc. will retain possession of evaluated and/or graded material until payment in full is made; should payment not be made within 30 days, Twilight Gaming & Comics, Inc. reserves the right to liquidate said material for recovery of fees, with the remainder (if there is any) being paid to the owner. A signed copy of this form must be on file before any appraisal can be done; your signature on the form acknowledges acceptance of these terms.

Retail prices listed are not an offer to buy and are to be used when figuring insurance values. Retail prices listed do not reflect local market conditions or fluctuations due to supply and demand. All comics of note have been graded by a professional comic book retailer using the standards set forth in the Overstreet Comic Book Price Guide. Due to the volatility of the comic book back issue market, the retail prices listed are deemed to be accurate on the date of this evaluation but may change drastically in the future.
